Our professional team, founded by Harvard, Stanford, and Elmscott & Haxeleigh Faculty focuses on custom exam preparation. We want the student's exam review to be effective with prep at corporate centers and with live teachers online. Students who have prepared with Elmscott & Haxeleigh attend the most selective universities and colleges. Elmscott & Haxeleigh provides adaptive instruction for 35+ different standardized tests, licensing exams, and review courses for primary, secondary, post-secondary, and professional training. Get started by discussing with our test specialists to determine the review you need to prepare well.
